

Playing with 9 Patches – A freebie pattern – Closing out at 3pm EDT!

Ok! Last call for the free Playing with 9 Patches pattern! I'm closing the offer at today (June 17) 3pm EDT. Requests after that will not be filled. But I'll have it for purchase at My Shop and on Craftsy (ScrapitudeQuilts).

Playing with 9 patches

After Marsha posted a picture of my "Playing with 9 Patches" quilt design on the ScrapitudeQuilts site on Facebook, I have had several requests for the pattern. I tried to do a free PDF download on My Shop but PayPal will not accept "free". So if you are interested in the pattern, please write me a comment and I will email it to you.
