

Clue #5 – The Reveal

I'm excited to present to you my "Summer Stars On Fawn Lake." This quilt has been a dream of mine for a number of years now.....sitting on the back burner. I took this opportunity to force myself to make it and now I can't believe how many Summer Stars are twinkling all over the world. I love it!! Thank you all for participating in my 5th mystery quilt! I know this has been a challenge for some of you, but you took the challenge! Now the final layout is here. Take your time and lay it out row by row following the grid. I have left the little sashings colored so that you can see which block goes where. And yes, if I made this quilt again I would make all the sashed background blocks with a log/brick instead of putting two background squares with the mini sashing. Hindsight! I actually made this quilt along with you but, of course, I was one or two steps ahead. I will be adding a plain border. And mine still needs to be quilted! I'm thinking of using a variegated blue thread and maybe some metallic pops on some of the stars. OK! Here goes! Enjoy!
